10/25/2005	(1)	Judge Reginald C. Lindsay : Electronic ORDER entered granting 5 Motion to Dismiss. Count I of the complaint is dismissed as to the City of Fall River for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. As to the remaining defendant, the complaint states that it is brought against District Attorney Walsh "in his capacity as the District Attorney for Bristol County." As such, it is deemed to be a suit against the County itself. A local government, however, may only be sued under 42 U.S.C. s.1983 if the execution of a policy or custom of the local government causes a constitutional injury. Monell v. Dept. of Social Services, 436 U.S. 658, 694 (1978). The complaint fails to allege a constitutional injury flowing from the execution of a policy or custom of Bristol County. If the complaint against the District Attorney is deemed to be a complaint against him in his personal capacity, the complaint fails because, in seeking a forfeiture of personal property in connection with a criminal proceeding, District Attorney Walsh, enjoys absolute immunity. Mendenhall v. Goldsmith, 59 F.3d 685, 689 (7th Cir. 1995); Schrob v. Catterson, 948 1402, 1411 (3d. Cir. 1991). Accordingly, count I is dismissed as to District Attorney Walsh. Count II appears to seek a declaration as to the lawfulness of the seizure and forfeiture of the plaintiff's bank account. This is a matter as to which a state judge has already ruled; count II therefore appears to be a claim in the nature of an appeal from that ruling. As such it is not cognizable in this court. Count II also is dismissed. The clerk shall enter a judgment dismissing this action. (Lindsay, Reginald) (Entered: 10/25/2005)
